

Women Writing to Unfold in Taos, NM

Monday August 26, 3:00– Saturday, August 31, 10:00 a.m. 2019

Imagine... being in a place that nurtures creativity. You're there in a circle of encouraging women.

Imagine... being guided in a gentle process of self-discovery.

Imagine... being taken care of so that you can focus on what's next on your unfolding path.

Writing helps us discover our truth, yoga brings us into our body and present moment awareness. Silence & sharing lets us rest into our true selves.

No writing experience needed!

I'm thrilled to be your guide!

My Mission — helping you find ways to express what you long to say. Together we'll liberate your creative spirit. I bring tools from many areas of my life as a guide to women's growth, author, therapist, process painter, wife, mother & grandmother.

Nancy Hill
