

Longing for a time to slow down, explore nature
and listen for your soul's voice?

Nancy Hill

Devotee of Creative Spirit

Writing to Unfold teaches us to slow down and become present. Nancy will offer guidance along with writing prompts for solo time. You'll have ample opportunities for quiet reflection. Surrounding prairies, gardens, walking paths and lake let us tap into our senses as we connect to nature and ourselves. Writing awakens our voice, lets us live more mindfully and feeds our creative spirit. Nancy will share a simple writing practice that allows us to fully enter the moment.
